

Carlos Miller

Miami, Florida
carlosmiller@magiccitymedia.com
www.magiccitymedia.com
www.carlosmiller.com

SKILLS

I am a multimedia journalist who writes compelling articles as well as shoots proficient photos and videos. I am also bilingual in English and Spanish.

WORK HISTORY

Miami Beach 411

2008-present

Senior editor for the website, www.miamibeach411.com, where I produce weekly articles with videos and photos.

Photography is Not a Crime

April 2007-present

My personal blog, www.carlosmiller.com, where I address First Amendment issues relating to journalists as well as police abuse issues. The blog draws more than 150,000 readers a month.

Magic City Media

2005-present

My multimedia business where I provide writing, photography and videography services to various national and local publications, organizations and companies.

NBC Miami

May 2009- October 2009

Weekend editor for the website, www.nbcmiami.com, where I was responsible for all the content that goes on the site on weekends. During the week, I was also responsible for producing multimedia packages, which included writing, photography and videography.

The Arizona Republic

2000-2004

Worked for the state's largest paper as a police reporter in Phoenix, the sixth largest city in the country

San Bernardino Sun

1999-2000

Worked as the night cops reporter in the largest county in the U.S. I also took photos with my articles.

Las Cruces Sun-News

1998-1999

Worked out of a bureau in Luna County where I covered the Mexican border as well as police-related issues. I also took photos.

Deming Headlight

1998

Juggled the city, education and business beats simultaneously for this Southern New Mexico newspaper.

Tucson Citizen

1997-1998

Wrote three stories a week for the features department for this Arizona newspaper.

Travel writer

1995-1996

Spent two years in Europe after graduating college and wrote freelance travel articles for American newspapers.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Communications with a minor in political science from Florida International University in Miami. Graduated in 1994 with a 3.1 grade point average.